

How Good and How Pleasant

"...it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" Psalm 133:1

C⁹ F C F⁷ B^b

1. How good and how pleas - ant for breth - ren to dwell
 2. Now Je - sus was pray - ing with fer - vent de - sire
 3. One bod - y, one spir - it, one Lord and one faith,

B^bm F G⁷ C⁷

To - geth - er in u - ni - ty, so Da - vid did tell;
 That all who be - lieve in His great name might be one.
 One ho - ly Cre - a - tor God, the Fa - ther of all;

C⁹ F C F⁷ B^b

Like beau - ti - ful mu - sic, a breath - tak - ing view,
 With voic - es u - nit - ed, to - geth - er we stand,
 One bap - tis - m pic - tur - ing life ev - er - more,

B^bm F C⁷ F

Like most pre - cious oint - ment, like fresh morn - ing dew
 At peace with the Heav - en - ly Fa - ther and Son.
 One hope and sal - va - tion, just as we are called.

F B^b C F F

That de - scend - ed on the moun - tains of Zi - on long be - fore;
 When we come in - to the knowl - edge and u - ni - ty of God,
 Like the dew that had de - scend - ed from Zi - on long be - fore,

G⁷ C⁷ C⁷

God com - mand - ed a bless - ing of life for - ev - er - more.
 And we grow and we fol - low the steps that Je - sus trod,
 God com - mand - ed a bless - ing of life for - ev - er - more.

C⁹ F C F⁷ B^b

How good and how pleas - ant for breth - ren to be

B^bm F C F

Dwell - ing safe - ly to - geth - er in sweet har - mo - ny.

TEXT: Psalm 133; John 17; Ephesians 4; 1 John 3:23
 MUSIC: Ross Jutsum