

Hymn of Unity

C F C F B^b F C F C

1. How good and how pleas - ant when breth - ren dwell to - geth - er
 2. Though man - y the mem - bers to each the Spir - it giv - eth
 3. The Lord shall be seek - ing His bride when He re - turn - eth,

F C F B^b F C F C F

In u - ni - ty shar - ing the love of God for - ev - er;
 The gifts for each func - tion so that the bod - y liv - eth,
 His wife in white lin - en, the Church for whom He yearn - eth;

C Cm B^b A⁷ Dm

As oil to flow from head to toe down Aar - on's beard and robe,
 For eye, or ear, or hand, 'tis clear - ly noth - ing of its own,
 As we a - wait the wed - ding great so let us strive to be

B^b C Gm C F G C B^b Gm B^b C⁷ F

And as the dew on ho - ly hills, the Lord's bless - ing ev - er - more shall show.
 But with the Lord as head the mem - bers do what each can - not do a - lone.
 Je - ru - sa - lem be - decked with gems of truth, love and light for all to see!

TEXT: David E. Hoover; from Psalm 133; 1 Corinthians 12; Revelation 19 & 21

MUSIC: SYMPHONY NO. 1 by Johannes Brahms, arr. by David E. Hoover