1. Hear my prayer, O Thou E - ter - nal; hide not Thy face from me;
 2. Like an owl in some poor waste - land, I mourn and can - not sleep;
 3. When our God re - turns from heav - en, then Zi - on shall be built;
 4. When all peo - ple then are gath - ered to serve the Lord their God,

Hear my cry and quick - ly an - swer, when my day of trou - ble comes.
 Like a mel - an - chol - y spar - row, like a pel - i - can a - lone.
 He shall come in all His glo - ry; He shall help the des - ti - tute.
 To de - clare His name in Zi - on, in Je - ru - sa - lem His praise!

Like grass my heart is with - ered, my days like grass con - sumed;
 O Thou, E - ter - nal, hear me, and an - swer speed - i - ly;
 Their prayers He will de - spise not; their groan - ing He will hear;
 All kings shall see His glo - ry, all na - tions hear His name!

My God, take not my life now, in the midst of my days.
 Hide not Thy face from me, Lord, for I moan bit - ter - ly.
 And they shall dwell in safe - ty, for our God shall re - turn.
 His fame shall be de - clared then, He shall reign for - ev - er - more!
